

Welcome to The Tongariro Alpine Crossing

The Tongariro National Park is rich in cultural identity, it has dramatic scenery and unique land forms this combines to make the Tongariro Alpine Crossing a world-renowned trek. (Rated as the best one day trek in New Zealand and listed by many in the top 10 day treks in the world) Many who complete the 18.5 kilometre journey will tell you the climbs can be steep and the weather can be unpredictable. You will need to arrange transport to the beginning of the Tongariro Alpine Crossing track and a pick up at the end of the day.

It's challenge, an adventure, an unforgettable experience.